

Sunday Picnic

Fill in the verbs in the Past Tense:

be; go

drive

take

have; be

find

carry

make; be

sleep

drink; look

count

fall

walk

think: be

open

see; know

shout

run

leave; stand

watch

come

have; eat

break

It ..was.. a lovely day last Sunday. The Elliots ...went.... to the coast. Mr Elliotdrove..... the old family car. They.....took..... food and drinks for a picnic. But a lot of peoplehad..... the same idea. So the roadswere..... full of cars. At twelve o'clock the Elliotsfound..... a field for the picnic. The children...carried..... all the food into the field. Irinamade..... the sandwiches. Mr Elliot ..was... tired andslept..... for half an hour in the grass. Mrs Elliotdrank..... some orange juice andlooked..... at the animals. She ..counted.. twelve young cows and one huge cow. Suddenly her sandwichfell.... into the dirt. Shewalked..... with the dirty sandwich towards the huge cow. She ..thought.. it was a good idea to give it to the huge cow. At that moment Mr Elliotopened.... his eyes andsaw... his wife and the bull. He ..knew.... bulls. Heshouted.....: "Be careful. It's a bull. Back to the car. Quick!" All the Elliotsran..... to the car. They ...left..the food back in the field. Theystood..... behind the fence andwatched..... the bull. A moment later the bullcame.....running to the picnic place. That day hehad.... a nice lunch. He ...ate..... all the sandwiches. And hebroke.....the Elliots ' plates in the field. What a lovely day!π