Linking sentences
Underline the correct linking word:

1. Yesterday I was in the mountains [and/but/because] I didn't climb a high mountain. ["didn't"= Verneinung in der Vergangenheit]

2. I didn't climb a mountain [and/but/because] I still had an injured leg.

3. There were no people in the mountains [and/but/because] there were wonderful animals.

4. I watched many birds [and/but/because] they're my favourite animals.

5. The sky was dark [and/but/because] it was very windy.

6. The rocks were wet and slippery [and/but/because] there was a storm.

7. I looked up the mountain [and/but/because] noticed a man in the rocks.

8. He shouted something [and/but/because] I didn't understand him.

9. I guessed he needed help [and/but/because] shouted for help.

10. I was lucky [and/but/because] my mobile phone was in my backpack.

11. I called the police [and/but/because] informed them about the man.

12. The police didn't send a helicopter [and/but/because] it was too windy.

13. They decided to use a jetpack [and/but/because] rescue the man in trouble.

14. They used a jetpack [and/but/because] it is easy for a jetpack to land on a mountain.

15. Then the jetpack carried the man [and/but/because] and landed next to the ambulance.

16. The mountain rescue men were happy [and/but/because] they rescued a man's life.

17. A jetpack is very good in the mountains [and/but/because] it is very expensive.

18. It was a very interesting day in the mountains [and/but/because] I enjoyed it very much.